

Early Intervention Services in Nevada

Do you have concerns about your child's development?

Early Intervention Services

Provides services, supports and resources from professionals that are available to assist your family with your child's needs. Services are voluntary and available to families with children under the age of three (3) who meet Nevada's eligibility requirements.

Scan

for more information about Early Intervention Services in Nevada.

Or

Call 1-800-522-0066 to set up your child's individual evaluation to determine eligibility for services, which are provided at no cost to the family.

